VISITORS TO THE LAW DEPARTMENT

*Hon'ble Dr. Justice A.M. Ahmadi
Former Chief Justice of India
(the then Judge, Supreme Court of India)*

27th Feb., 1994

I was happy to visit the Law Faculty of the University and was greatly impressed by the facilities provided to the students. The library of the Faculty is reasonably good and affords the students a good opportunity for research work. The journals received by the library also give the students an idea of the developments of laws in other countries.

*Hon'ble Mr. Justice J.S. Verma
Former Chief Justice of India
(the then Judge, Supreme Court of India)*

19th March, 1994

The Annual Debate and Moot Court organised by the Law Faculty as a part of the legal education imparted by this University is a welcome feature. The programme for legal education in this Varsity is in the right direction and shows a proper perspective of its need. The teachers are dedicated and the students are serious. The entire atmosphere is quite congenial. The active participation of the Vice-Chancellor gives it an added and needed Philip. My stay was indeed a very pleasant experience.

*Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.P. Bharucha
Former Chief Justice of India

25th March, 1995

It has been a great pleasure and educative to visit Kurukshetra University to inaugurate its All India Debate and Moot Court Competitions, a most valuable adjunct to its teaching of Law. There is an atmosphere of serenity in the University Campus that, alongwith the quality of the education that is imparted and the earnestness of its students well qualifies it for the quintessential description of a place of learning and groves of academic.

His Lordship also visited the Law Library and observed:

Visit to Kurukshetra is exotic and stay at the University campus is thrilling. I was taken back even to the days prior to Mahabharata and was educated about Krishna cult and culture. Above all the vast campus of the University apart from being beautiful is conducive to academic life. My participation in the inter-departmental Moot Court competition gave me an inkling of the level of education, the effort and learning both on the part of teachers and taught, which is unhasitatingly say is very high. The Faculty of Law is doing tremendously good work and need all encouragement.

The Vice-Chancellor and the other Administrative officers are not only very able but extremely courteous extending necessary hospitality to make ones stay in the campus comfortable-nay luxurious. I wish them all success.
